The NRP Group LLC Celebrates NAHB SAFE Award

Cleveland, Ohio--(April 18) The NRP Group announced April 14, 2008, was a special day of gratitude for the construction division of NRP Contractors, LLC for being recognized for the National Home Builder's Association (NAHB) for the Safety Award for Excellence (SAFE). It was the day when Joseph Hallal, President , Code Three Risk Management in partnership with The NRP Group, presented NRP's construction staff a piece of over-due recognition for their efforts related to the risk management and/or safety program. A celebration luncheon was held on their behalf and the construction staff was formally recognized in front of all of the home office personnel at the NRP corporate headquarters located at 5309 Transportation Blvd., Cleveland, Ohio.

"It is very exiting to be able to celebrate the SAFE Award with our entire Cleveland office team and we are very proud of our construction team," said David Heller, Principal, The NRP Group LLC. "We competed against many developers across the country. We take pride in embracing very high safety standards along with on-the-job safety training and awareness. Safety participation is seen at all levels of operations from our corporate and regional offices to our site superintendents."

This SAFE award reflects the hard work and dedication the safety staff and construction project management personnel submitted that ultimately went into devising the risk management plan and its method of implementation. Moreover, it also recognizes the steadfast efforts from The NRP Group's field staff to integrate safety principles into the everyday operations on construction sites.

“Late in 2007 we sent the application to the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) for an award of safety that is given out each year. NRP applied under several categories, one of which was the multi-family builders section which placed us up against hundreds of contactors nationwide whose scope and nature is similar or much larger than ours,” said Hallal. “In January we were notified that we were one of the finalists for the award and were subsequently invited to participate in the awards ceremony that was going to be held in Orlando during the February NAHB annual convention. I am very proud to announce that The NRP Group LLC won the award for best safety program - multi family projects division for 2008!”

The NRP Safety Motto – “On time, on budget - just get it done safely!”
